

time after the selection of an application, the Administrator may, upon a request from the borrower and receipt of any documentation the Administrator considers necessary, approve changes in the method of carrying out the purpose of the project as long as the overall purpose of the project remains the same, revise the amount of the zero-interest loan and/or grant, revise the loan maturity date and principal deferment period and make other adjustments. The Administrator may reduce the amount of the RUS loan or grant to reflect reductions in the amount of supplemental funds to be provided to the project. For substantial reductions in amount of supplemental funds to be provided to the project, the Administrator may require the borrower to re-apply for the RUS loan or grant funds.

(d) If state or local governments raise objections to a proposed project under the intergovernmental review process that are not resolved within three months of the Administrator's selection of the application, the Administrator may consider the selection of the application cancelled.

§ 1703.59 Final application processing and legal documents.

(a) After a borrower has submitted all information the Administrator determines is necessary for the selected application, RUS will send the necessary legal documents to the borrower to execute and return to RUS. The legal documents will include a letter of agreement and any legal documents the Administrator deems appropriate, including any loan agreements, notes, security instruments, certifications or legal opinions. The letter of agreement will, among other things, constitute the Administrator's approval of funds for the project subject to certain terms and conditions as determined by the Administrator, and include a project description, approved purposes of the zero-interest loan and/or grant, the maximum amount of zero-interest loan and/or grant, supplemental funds to be provided to the project and certain agreements or commitments the borrower proposed in its application.

(b) The Administrator has the discretion to include as an approved purpose the reimbursement of short-term financing and expenditures that were used for costs incurred on the project in accordance with § 1703.20(a)(2).

(c) If the borrower fails to submit within one month from the date of the Administrator's selection of an application all of the information that the Administrator determines to be necessary for RUS to prepare legal documents, the Administrator may consider the selection of the application cancelled.

§ 1703.60 [Reserved]

§ 1703.61 Disbursement of zero-interest loan and grant funds.

(a) RUS will disburse zero-interest loan funds to the borrower which must disburse zero-interest loan proceeds to the project for approved purposes in accordance with the legal documents executed by the Administrator and the borrower and applicable RUS regulations. The borrower must make payments on a zero-interest loan as set forth in the legal documents executed by the Administrator and the borrower. The Borrower or project owner's share in the cost of the project must be utilized in advance of RUS zero-interest loan funds, or upon RUS approval, on a pro-rata distribution basis with loan funds during the disbursement period. The Borrower or project owner will not be permitted to provide its contribution at the end of the loan disbursement period.

(b) RUS will disburse grant funds to the borrower which must disburse grant proceeds to the project for approved purposes in accordance with the provisions of 7 CFR part 3015 and 7 CFR part 3016, as appropriate, the legal documents executed by the Administrator and the borrower, and applicable RUS regulations. Prior to the disbursement of grant funds under this subpart, the Borrower will provide evidence of fidelity bond coverage as required by 7 CFR 3015.17. The grant portion of a pass-through zero-interest loan and grant will be disbursed to the Borrower on a reimbursement basis after all other project funds have been utilized and evidence is provided that the project has been completed.
